BUOYANCY IN PRICES IS FEATURE OF MARKET

Caused by Signs of Returning Life That Promise Further Advance.

MEXICAN NEWS IS NEW IMPULSE

Pessimism is Overdone, and Short Interest is Still Open That Shows Signs of Fright.

BY BROADWAY WALL.

New York, May 14.—Stocks emerged today from the chrysalis of idleness that enshrouded them for weeks. Signs of returning life in speculative circles brought a buoyancy in prices that promised a further advance.

Steel common took the lead at the opening and maintained its supremacy all the close with a gain of two points. Steel common took the lead at the opening and maintained its supremacy all the close with a gain of two points.

Timous were current that President Taft's success in negotiating new trade arrangements during his trip abroad that will insure a sharp rise in the price of steel products when the settlement of the question released orders for rails. New tonnage has not been looked at the low prices, and contracts are not being made at present quotations.

An ultimate short interest that President Taft's success in negotiating new trade arrangements during his trip abroad that will insure a sharp rise in the price of steel products when the settlement of the question released orders for rails.

Copper stocks were strong under the lead of Utah that has been found in the Constitutionalist, Mexican Petroleum made an extreme advance of six points and another gained two.

Such disappointment was felt over the failure of Missouri Pacific to be bought by the public. All trading in the shares, upon the part of the public, appears to have been short on the short side, and the rally to 18 7/8 was not due to cheerfulness or a higher estimate of the value of the stock.

Chesapeake and Ohio was strong on the announcement that the directors had decided to sell to the State in the forests their Kanawha and Michigan holdings at par.

United Fruit was entirely of local origin today. London took no part in the day's trading, and Paris was in a moderate decline. The stock of the firm, with an exception, Rock Island collapsed 1/2, that dropped from 35 to 34 1/2.

Conditions are ripe for a further and substantial advance in prices. Pessimism is overdone, and short interest is still open that shows signs of fright.

Timous is abnormally cheap, even conditions excellent and an increase in freight rates almost assured, although the present prices of standard securities.

New York, May 14.—The deadlock was broken today in the stock market. Quotations advanced definitely from the recent low level, and this was due to a number of factors, some of which were considerably more active than during the past few days.

The market was active, and the price of the stock was 18 7/8. The market was active, and the price of the stock was 18 7/8.
